Publication fee:

Article processing fee is 215 Euro, due to pay only after accepting the paper by Editorial Board. Producing reviewed, edited, and formatted article, maintaining it online around the clock and in electronic indexing archives and data bases assume adequate funding. BEH is not subsidized/sponsored periodical and performs as fee-based open access journal. In this model we require payment on behalf of the author, i.e. we charge authors of accepted papers at optimized and effective rates as minor part of a costs incurred by a researcher during the whole research cycle including final publishing. The paper will be published online with ISSN 1804-5006 (Online) with open access to a global reader.

Paper submission deadline:

Electronic copies of paper must be sent to: publications@pradec.eu

Applications are accepted throughout the year. We do not publish strictly fixed number of Volumes or Issues or Articles per year. Online publication of the received articles will take possible quickest time (usually 2-4 weeks after receiving) depending on quality of article and editorial process.
